NEW BUSINESS

Jessie Klehfoth, Events and Recreation Director; gave an in-depth recap of the 2023 summer season of events. She presented a slide presentation that covered attendance, revenue and demographics of the events held that season.

She shared the small amount of negative feedback the events received, mostly regarding the skim around the outside of the amphitheater. This negative feeling was shared by the committee, but it was acknowledged as a working solution.

The committee shared their positive feedback about the season and expressed their excitement for the next.

Scott O'Brien and Eric Nicholds decided to table the agenda items regarding committee membership and meeting frequency due to time constraints.

Terese Berger gave a brief summer recreation recap and previewed some ideas for winter recreation, including the continuation of the lake loops.
